MAJOR TRANSACTIONS AND DISCLOSEABLE TRANSACTIONS IN RELATION TO WEALTH MANAGEMENT PRODUCTS

SUBSCRIPTIONS OF WEALTH MANAGEMENT PRODUCTS

The Board announces that since the Company's listing, the Company through members of the Group subscribed for wealth management products offered by BOC, BOCM, CCB, CGB and CMB, respectively.

Further particulars of such wealth management products are set out in the section headed "Subscriptions of Wealth Management Products" of this announcement.

IMPLICATION OF THE LISTING RULES

Subscriptions of wealth management products on stand-alone basis

The subscriptions of wealth management products by members of the Group constituted Discloseable Transactions, as the highest applicable percentage ratio (as defined in the Listing Rules) in respect of the subscriptions of wealth management products offered by the relevant banks, taking into account the acquisition costs of the wealth management products under the relevant subscriptions, exceeds 5%, such subscriptions of wealth management products constituted Discloseable Transactions of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

Subscriptions of wealth management products on aggregate basis

As the wealth management products subscribed by members of the Group with each of the relevant banks were of similar nature and were subscribed from the same bank, the corresponding principal amounts of the relevant wealth management products shall be aggregated with that of the then outstanding wealth management products as if they were one transaction with the relevant bank for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules.

In the case of Discloseable Transactions, as the highest applicable percentage ratio (as defined in the Listing Rules) in respect of the subscriptions of wealth management products offered by the relevant banks, taking into account the acquisition costs of the wealth management products under the relevant subscriptions plus the then outstanding sum of all wealth management products held by members of the Group with the relevant banks, exceeds 5%, such subscriptions of wealth management products constituted Discloseable Transactions of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

In the case of Major Transactions, as the highest applicable percentage ratio (as defined in the Listing Rules) in respect of the subscriptions of wealth management products offered by the relevant banks, taking into account the acquisition costs of the wealth management products under the relevant subscriptions plus the then outstanding sum of all wealth management products held by members of the Group with the relevant banks, exceeds 25%, such subscriptions of wealth management products constituted Major Transactions of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, no Shareholders or any of their respective associates (as defined under the Listing Rules) has a material interest in the Major Transactions, thus no Shareholders is required to abstain from voting on the resolution at the EGM to approve the Major Transactions.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

The EGM will be convened and held by the Company for the Shareholders to consider, and if thought fit, to approve and ratify, among other things, the Major Transactions.

A circular containing, among others, (i) further particulars of the Major Transactions; (ii) a notice convening the EGM; and (iii) other information required to be disclosed under the Listing Rules would be sent to the Shareholders on or before December 27, 2024 as additional time is needed for the preparation and finalization of certain information for inclusion in the circular.

BASIS OF CONSIDERATION

The Directors confirmed that the subscription amounts and terms of each of the Products were determined on the commercial terms after arm's length negotiation between the Group and each of BOC, BOCM, CCB, CGB and CMB (as the case may be) having taken into account (i) the then financial status of the Group; (ii) the expected investment return and terms of the Products; and (iii) the expected annual return rates of similar wealth management products offered by other comparable banks then available in the market.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE SUBSCRIPTIONS OF THE WEALTH MANAGEMENT PRODUCTS

The transactions for the subscriptions of the Products were entered into by the Group for treasury purpose in order to fully utilise the cash and bank balances of the Group.

Taking into account (i) the low-risk involved in the subscriptions of wealth management products, and (ii) the subscriptions of wealth management products were not funded by external financial resources, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the terms and conditions of the subscriptions of wealth management products are fair and reasonable in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.

Subscriptions of wealth management products on stand-alone basis

The subscriptions of wealth management products by members of the Group constituted Discloseable Transactions, as the highest applicable percentage ratio (as defined in the Listing Rules) in respect of the subscriptions of wealth management products offered by the relevant banks, taking into account the acquisition costs of the wealth management products under the relevant subscriptions, exceeds 5%, such subscriptions of wealth management products constituted Discloseable Transactions of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

Subscriptions of wealth management products on aggregate basis

As the wealth management products subscribed by members of the Group with each of the relevant banks were of similar nature and were subscribed from the same bank, the corresponding principal amounts of the relevant wealth management products shall be aggregated with that of the then outstanding wealth management products as if they were one transaction with the relevant bank for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules.

In the case of Discloseable Transactions, as the highest applicable percentage ratio (as defined in the Listing Rules) in respect of the subscriptions of wealth management products offered by the relevant banks, taking into account the acquisition costs of the wealth management products under the relevant subscriptions plus the then outstanding sum of all wealth management products held by members of the Group with the relevant banks, exceeds 5%, such subscriptions of wealth management products constituted Discloseable Transactions of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, no Shareholders or any of their respective associates (as defined under the Listing Rules) has a material interest in the Major Transactions, thus no Shareholders is required to abstain from voting on the resolution at the EGM to approve the Major Transactions.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

The EGM will be convened and held by the Company for the Shareholders to consider, and if thought fit, to approve and ratify, among other things, the Major Transactions.

A circular containing, among others, (i) further particulars of the Major Transactions; (ii) a notice convening the EGM; and (iii) other information required to be disclosed under the Listing Rules would be sent to the Shareholders on or before December 27, 2024 as additional time is needed for the preparation and finalization of certain information for inclusion in the circular.

REMEDIAL ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN BY THE COMPANY

The Company deeply regrets its non-compliance with the Listing Rules (the “Non-compliance”) but the Company would like to stress that the Non-compliance was inadvertent and the Company had no intention to withhold any information relating to the subscriptions of wealth management products from disclosure and/or Shareholders’ approval. The Non-compliance was due to the careless omission and misunderstanding of the Listing Rules in respect of the aggregation of transactions under Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules in the case of subscriptions of wealth management products when the relevant branch companies of the Group handled the subscriptions of wealth management products.

In order to prevent the occurrence of similar incidents and ensure compliance with the relevant requirements of the Listing Rules in the future, the Company has adopted/will adopt the following measures to enhance its internal control:

- (1) an internal memo has been issued to all Directors and department heads of the Group that the notifiable transaction requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, in particular relating to the subscription of wealth management products, must be strictly complied with and they shall keep the Company informed of any transactions which may involve disclosure and/or Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules;
- (2) relevant internal training sessions in respect of Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules will be arranged for all Directors, department heads of the Group and relevant personnel of the Group before December 31, 2024 so as to update and refresh their knowledge and understanding on the requirements of the Listing Rules;
- (3) enhanced the Group's internal control system by, among other things, (i) adopted and implemented internal monitoring policies on the subscription of wealth management products; (ii) imposed upper limit on the subscription of wealth management products with financial institutions by branch companies and require pre-approval of the delegated personnel of the Company for any transactions which, if materializes, would exceed the said limit; and (iii) continue to monitor the monthly transactions with relevant financial institutions to ensure that better coordination and report of transactions among various branch companies of the Group; and
- (4) engaging an independent internal control consultant by December 13, 2024 to assist in assessing, reviewing and improving the Group's internal control. The review process will be conducted comprehensively and thoroughly, with the final results and recommendations expected to be ready by March 2025. Following the review, the Company will publish an announcement in relation to the key findings of the internal control review. This will ensure timely implementation of any necessary improvements to enhance the Group's internal controls.
